

Training package for Higher Education Institutions

Under the title "Enhancing HEI's participation in regional smart specialisation strategies using self-assessment", the RE-ACT training package for Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) aims to contribute to enhance the self and shared perception about HEIs current positioning and awareness about the latent potential for HEIs to play a pivotal role in regional development strategies.

Training modules

The training programme for HEIs is divided in two main parts. Part I includes an overview of the key concepts of the RE-ACT approach, the role of HEIs in regional development and guidance for the use of the self-assessment tool. Part II provides support materials for HEIs to follow up after having performed their self-assessment with the RE-ACT tool.

Enhancing HEI's participation in regional smart specialisation strategies using self-assessment

- Part I, Module 1: Introduction the Entrepreneurial University
- Part I, Module 2: Enhancing HEI's participation in regional smart specialisation strategies using self-assessment
- Part I, Module 3: HEInnovate and the new HEInnovate for RIS3
- Part II: Support tools for self-assessment and follow up

The training modules, additional materials and training support materials are available on the RE-ACT project website and can be used free of charge by HEIs and other interested actors.

Training support materials

Training modules are complemented by a manual and guidelines to support trainers and/or training providers who wish to implement the training programme for HEIs.

- Trainers Manual: includes presentation of the course, training resources, recommendations for training implementation, suggestions of support tools and forms, including for evaluation.
- Guidelines for the selection of Trainers: includes the requirements that trainers and trainees should fulfil in order to successfully implement the course.

RE-ACT – Self-reflection tools for smart universities acting regionally, aims at supporting HEIs to rethink and reposition their strategies, structures and actions through a holistic approach to innovation and entrepreneurship, regionally embedded and supported by collaborative links among key actors of the quadruple helix.
